VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

TO-DAY'S GAMES. Lynchburg at Richmond. Norfolk at Roanoke. Portsmouth at Danville

Club Standings. Won. Lost. Clubs

Speaking Saturday night concerning the report that he was desirous of trading two of the local pitchers for Schumann, of Portsmouth, Mr. W. B. Bradley said that there was absolutely no foundation for the report, and that the matter had not been considered either by himself or by Manager Shaffer. Many people are laboring under cither by himself or by Manager Shaffer. Many people are laboring under the fallacy that Richmond needs a new coterie of pitchers, but when it is considered that there never was a pitcher and never will be one to remain in the best of form all through his career, and that following a period of star playing there must necessarily come a reaction, it will be seen what a fallacy this is. Another fact to be noted is that all the seen what a fallacy this is. Another fact to be noted is that all the teams in the Virginia League are doing much better work with the stick than was exhibited by any of them last year. A poor batter has a much better chance of improvement than a good pitcher.

All the managers are reporting a large increase in the attendance this year over that of last year. Mr. Bradley states that the attendance is at least 50 per cent. larger both at home and year over that of last year. Mr. Bradley states that the attendance is at least 50 per cent. larger both at home and on the trips, which is a very gratifying state of affairs for those who have to work out the necessary change when it comes to paying the salaries. Manager-Owner Grim should feel some little consolation in this, for when bad weather comes and salaries still go on there is no one to help him out.

It is felt that the team will be greatly strengthened by the addition of "Rube" Carter, of Linchburg, whom Manager Grim traded Saturday for "Happy" Eckstone. Grim received some other consideration for his man besides the trade, for Carter comes to Richmond with a better reputation than Eckstone goes to Lynchburg. "Happy" is a hard worker, though, and, perhaps, in a new field he will show up in better form. He goes with the best wishes of all.

The Richmond Journals and Loce. the great English racing prize, to be run at Epsom Downs on Wednesday; the International Horse Show at the Olympia in London, beginning Friday the best wishes of all.

The Richmond Journals and Loco teams of the Richmond Amateur League, will play their postponed game to-day at Forest Hill Park at 4 o'clock. The battery for the Richmond Journals will be Dowden or Ford; and Stout; while Bennett and Wade will do the work for Ne Locos.

Mr. Bender will officiate as unpire.

Much interest is manifested in this game as both teams are very close in the pennant race.
